Simplified FIFA Futsal Rules

- The game of Futsal is played on an indoor or outdoor court or field, and it will measure from 15mtrs wide to 30mtrs long, or for International Standard it will be 40mtrs x 20mtrs with 3mtrs x 2mtr goal posts.
- A team consists of 5 players, 4 court players and 1 goalkeeper, the maximum number of players in a team is up to 12.
- Unlimited substitutions. Players can re-enter the game as many times as they like. It is running subs where players must enter and leave the court at the same time, from in the substitution zone. The game can be stopped for substitutions of the goalkeeper.
- There is NO offside, and players can score from anywhere on the court of play.
- When the ball goes out of play, it is to be kicked in from the sideline or corners. The player who is to kick the ball in, will place the ball on the touchline with their hand ensuring that it is stationary.
- For a ball to be out of play or a goal scored, ALL of the ball must be over the line.
- A goal cannot be scored directly from a sideline kick, unless the ball touches one of the attacking or defending players before the ball enters the goal. However, a goal can be scored directly from a corner or the start of play.
- The goalkeeper can throw the ball anywhere on the court on the full. They can't score directly from the throw unless the ball touches another player before going into the goal. If ball goes over the goal line, it must be thrown by the goalkeeper. If they save the ball, they can throw, kick or play the ball for themselves to clear it. If they kick it and it goes into the goal, it is awarded as a goal.
- The goalkeeper has 4 seconds time limit to control the ball and release it from their possession.
- Goalkeepers are not allowed to pick up the ball with their hands from a deliberate back pass (by feet) from any of their teammates.
- Each team has 15 seconds to get the ball into the oppositions half unless touched by the opposition, if not done so then a sideline kick will be awarded to the opposition nearest where the ball was when time elapsed.
- Once the goalkeeper has played the ball, they cannot touch the ball again until it touches the opposition.
- No tackling from behind or dangerous slide tackling is allowed.
- The game has a 4 second time limit for all kick ins, corners, and free kicks. Referee will count to 4 with their hands visible to players. If play isn't restarted, possession is surrendered.
- Free Kicks - the opposition must be back 5 mtrs from the taking of any free kicks.
- Dangerous play is not allowed.
- Each team has 5 team fouls per half. Any fouls after the fifth will be penalised with a 9 mtr penalty shot by the opposition.

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Players - understand and agree to:

- play in accordance with the rules of the game;
- never argue with an official. If a player disagrees with a decision, they should ask the team captain to approach the officiating referee during a break;
- control their temper. Verbal abuse of officials and sledging other players, deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent are not acceptable or permitted behaviours in any sport and may be a breach of our Member Protection Policy;
- never engage in any type of violence either on or off the field;
- work equally hard for themselves and their team. The team's performance will benefit, and so will the Player's;
- be a good sport. Applaud good plays whether they are made by their team or the opposition;
- treat all participants as they would like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor;
- cooperate with their coaches, team-mates and opponents. Without them there would be no competition;
- participate for their own enjoyment and benefit and for the enjoyment and benefit of their teammates;
- respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of the gender, ability, cultural background or religion;
- not take part in any form of bullying including via the use of social media.
- be prepared to be responsible for their actions.

Coaches Code of Conduct

This Coaches Code of Conduct is intended to reinforce the elements of enjoyment and satisfaction to junior players and coaches involved in Futsal.

- To make adults including parents and coaches aware that young players play football to satisfy themselves and not necessarily to satisfy adults or team mates.
- To improve the health and fitness of Northern Territory's youth by encouraging participation in Futsal and making it attractive, safe and enjoyable for all to play.
- To remind coaches and parents that football must be managed and coached, for the good of those young people who wish to play football, as ultimately "It is their game".

The Gove Junior Football (East Arnhem Futsal) Coaches Code of Conduct:

- respect the decisions of the Match Officials and refrain from arguing with a referee over a decision as a role model for players
- respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their race, colour, religion, language, national or ethnic origin and ensure that everyone is treated equally and without harassment
- ensure that the players are involved in a positive environment, and that training and game day is a positive and enjoyable experience
- respect all player's individuality and help them reach their own full potential.
- be fair, considerate and honest with all players
- be as professional as possible and accept responsibility for my actions and encourage players to demonstrate the same qualities
- commit to my team to continue to improve knowledge of the game through coach education and various training opportunities through East Arnhem Futsal and AFA
- coach my players to play within the rules and in the spirit of the game of Futsal
